Sir :

The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to complete the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 371 (c) within the time period set forth in 37 C.F.R. 1.495.

More specifically, the above-identified application is the national stage of International PCT Application No. PCT/EP2003/007704, filed July 16, 2003, claiming priority of DE 102 36 063.4, filed August 7, 2002, for which entry into the United States should have been completed by 30 months from the priority date, i.e. by February 7, 2005. This application has therefore become abandoned on February 8, 2005.

was due to an incorrect input of the priority date into a data base so that the due date was miscalculated.

Further, Applicants submit herewith the following:

- (1) A check in the amount $2,400.00 which includes the petition fee of $1,500.00 pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.17 (m), for revival of an unintentionally abandoned application and the basic national stage filing fee of $900.00
- (2) Copy of the International Application as published as WO 2004/014333 A1
- (3) Form PCT/IB/308
- (4) Form PCT/IB/304
- (5) Unexecuted Declaration

Accordingly, Applicants submit that the present application is sufficiently complete for entry into the United States of PCT application PCT/EP2003/007704.

In summary, Applicants hereby petition for the late acceptance of the application papers for entry into the U.S. National Stage of PCT/EP2003/007704 and the revival of this application as having become unintentionally abandoned because of the failure to timely enter the national stage.

Applicants respectfully submit that the entire delay in entering the national stage was unintentional.
